Bob Sleigh's Update!

Bob Sleigh has been using his magic powers to move around the school again this week. He has been keeping an eye on us and spread some holiday cheer! Let's find out what he has been up to this week.

In Singapore, he was hiding under a huge pile of balloons and the children loved completing a candy cane hunt around the classroom. In year 6, he had got in a spot of bother with the North Pole police as he had escaped from Alpinecatraz for stealing chocolate buttons. Luckily the children found him hiding in the cupboard. After that, he was found making pizzas in nursery but left a terrible mess and then moved the 2-year olds unit and made a mess in there too with snowballs. What a naughty elf! He got himself into a bit of a sticky situation in Portugal when he was trying to decorate the classroom for the children. Another busy week for Bob Sleigh, where will he be next week?

Year 1 Bankfield Museum Trip:

As part of History Week last week, Year 1 went on an Old Toys Workshop at Bankfield Museum. They learnt about all different types of toys that are around today, stretching right back to the Victorians. Children made a timeline, grouped them and had a play with a range of toys from Sooty and Sweep to a Steretropo ! They looked at how the materials used to make toys has changed and picked their favourite one to draw. A fantastic time was had by all!
