Sports Camp

A huge thank you to Mr Hussain and Mr Attwood for organising the 2 day sports camp within the Christmas holidays!

The sports camp was a huge success and involved activities such as football, tag rugby, indoor athletics, bench ball and dodgeball.

@RetroEventsLtd are coming to the new Central Library this Saturday! How cool is that! We are super excited!

So if you fancy playing some classic video games such as Crash Bandicoot or Sonic the Hedgehog, why not come along!

This is a free event aimed at the whole family, 9.30 am - 4pm.

I hope everyone had a peaceful and enjoyable holiday!

The table above shows individual class attendance for the last term. you can see from this we are only just above 96% (the national average). We need to ensure all our pupils attend school regularly in order to further improve our current attendance. Please ensure your child/ children does not miss his/her education and through regular attendance is able to achieve their true potential.

If you have any concerns are questions surrounding your child/children’s attendance then please contact me.
