

BEECH HILL NEWS

Thursday 28th February

World Book Day

On Thursday 7th March, we will be celebrating World Book Day! Children can come to school dressed as a character from a book of their choice.

We look forward to seeing how creative everyone will be—there is no need to buy anything new, just see what you can put together at home

Miss Grba and Miss Whitton will have small prizes for the most creative costumes!

Beech Hill Values

Our value for this fortnight is courage. Through assemblies and in class discussions, children will be finding out what the word courage means, when they might need to be courageous and how they can show courage.

They will also be thinking about times that they have been courageous. You can support your child by discussing this at home.

This March we are going to focus on kindness throughout school, linking to our current and up and coming values of appreciation, compassion and courage. Every class has been given a calendar to record some of the kind things they've said and done.

Class teachers would also love to hear about the kind things the children have done over the weekend.

Please send any evidence on seesaw or into class on Mondays.
Thank you for your continued support!
